Rebuilding trust in long term savings

Tuesday 6 February at St Pancras Renaissance Hotel, Euston Road, London NW1 2AR

Time	Session
0815-0900	Registration and coffee
0900-0910	Welcome - Stephen Lowe, Group Communications Director, Just
0910-0945	Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Pensions and Financial Inclusion - Guy Opperman MP will set out the Government's policy agenda and how that will help to build trust in the long term savings and pensions system.
0945-1025	So just what do our customers think about long term savings, pensions and us? An examination of the levels of trust and understanding of the long term savings industry. Janette Weir, Managing Director, Ignition House, will talk about the results of the research project commissioned specifically for the Retirement Summit.
1025-1040	Having heard the outputs of the research, the Summit delegation will be given fifteen minutes to formulate the questions they would like to ask of the Panel
1040-1120	Developing the cross sector industry response: The Panel - made up of Graham Vidler, Director of External Affairs at the Pensions and Lifetime Savings Association, Dr Yvonne Braun, Director of Policy, Long-term Savings and Protection at ABI, Jonathan Lipkin, Director, Public Policy at the Investment Association and Jacquie Duckworth, Client Director - Finance at Hearst Group - will respond to your questions
1120-1140	Coffee & networking
1140-1215	Global Trends: The 2017 Edelman Trust Barometer reveals that trust is in crisis around the world. What can we learn from this insight to drive our investment in rebuilding trust with our communities.
1215-1245	The Summit delegation will be tasked to contribute their ideas to a specific theme to identify how the industry can work across sectors, with policymakers to close the 'trust gap'
1245-1400	Buffet lunch
1400-1430	David Geale, Policy Director, FCA will seek to address how regulatory activity is seeking to engender higher levels of trust.
1430-1500	Dr Yvonne Braun, Association of British Insurers: Purpose and importance of long term savings to society.
1500-1530	Pulling it all together: This session is designed to build on the individual thematic actions identified earlier and ask the Summit delegation to create a straw man of a programme that may be developed further by the industry trade bodies working in collaboration with policy makers and regulators on behalf of their members
1530-1550	Afternoon tea
1550-1620	In praise of older people - an uplifting vision to remind us that later life is an integral part of life; that older people can continue to contribute to society and enjoy themselves thanks to the fact that there is an industry focused on ensuring they have enough money to do so!
1620-1645	Handing over the baton: Conference Chair will invite the three body leaders to respond to the ideas generated by the Summit delegation
1645-1800	A glass of something and a wave goodbye
