

A Meeting of Minds Asset Management

The Berkeley Hotel, Wilton Place, London SW1X 7RL

Thursday 5 March 2020

THE SCHEDULE OF THE DAY

The Belgravia	0815-0845	Breakfast	Informal networking over breakfast
The Ballroom	0900-0915	Welcome	Evie Owen, Joint Managing Director, Owen James will open with the findings of Owen James' proprietary research looking at asset management trends and the current distribution landscape.
The Ballroom	0915-0930	Keynote	Tony Langham, CEO, Lansons will set the scene with his perspective on whether UK business is fit for purpose.
Board Rooms	0930-1030	Roundtable 1	Categorising your clients: Retail, Wholesale, Institutional – aren't they just clients?	Stewardship – the safe investment of capital to create sustainable value. When it comes to measuring a company's value, traditional metrics are no longer fit for purpose – discuss!	ESG – the momentum is there – we now need some standardised metrics to measure performance.
The Belgravia	1030-1050	Coffee	Apple & BlackBerry time
Board Rooms	1050-1150	Roundtable 2	Talking about client engagement... thinking about your future clients – now here is a good idea!	Maintaining our position as a world leader in investment management.	ESG – the momentum is there – we now need some standardised metrics to measure performance.
	1155-1300	Roundtable 3	Providing value for money It certainly isn't just about growing the pot. A look at the FCA's Assessment of Value.	Is your business match fit? Indeed, are you?
The Ballroom	1300-1430	Luncheon	A seated formal luncheon incorporating the second keynote.
The Ballroom	1355-1425	Keynote	An update on the Coronavirus. Professor David Heymann, Professor of Infectious Disease Epidemiology, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine , has kindly agreed to brief us on where we are in terms of the virus, its potential to spread and its potential impact on the world economy and indeed population.
The Ballroom	1425-1430	Farewell	And back to work we go!		