

WEALTHTECH MATTERS

NETWORKING EVENT WITH YOUR KEY CLIENTS

A day that brings together COOs, CTOs, CIOs and their teams from the top EAMs, Private Banks, Wealth Managers, DFMs Advisers and MFOs. Owen James Events, in collaboration with The Wealth Mosaic, present an exciting opportunity to present the latest developments in technology.

Sponsorship packages available

- Run a strategic roundtable – delegates select sessions, and have personalised itineraries, meaning it is a captive audience
- Run a TechTalk – take the main stage with a ten minute punchy presentation
- Join as a networker so you can mingle with all the participants

Sponsorship comes with exceptional benefits, including:

- Unveiling your brand's commitment to technological innovation in front of an elite audience of decision-makers and industry leaders
- Taking the centre stage with prominent branding opportunities and ensure your message resonates with every attendee
- Forging strategic partnerships by networking with like-minded professionals, exchanging ideas and establishing collaborations that will drive your business forward
- Shaping the future narrative by participating in strategic roundtables

Roundtable discussions you could lead

- The power of AI
- The cloud, cybersecurity and collaborating with the right service providers
- Sustainable investments
- Regulatory Landscape. Managing the new risks, rules and requirements
- Enhancing the client experience
- The platforms and services that make the biggest impact
- Harvesting Crypto Valley's digital assets
